

I believe that it is an outrage that Sinclair Broadcasting can force stations to show an anti-Kerry documentary this close to an election.

This is a dangerous example of what happens when the media consolidates.

How can this happen in America?

Ann McCommas